WEST VIRGINIA TO RAISE SHEEP

(By Associated Press) CHARLESTON, W. Va., March 13.—The state of West Virginia has decided to engage in the raising of sheep, in conjunction with A. E. Aegen and S. M. Croft of Grove City, Pa., and Charleston, and other business men of this state.

James H. Stewart, state commissioner of agriculture, is authority for this announcement, claiming that his department is lending encouragement and financial assistance to the establishment of the greatest agricultural project ever attempted by a state. The ranch is to be located in Greenbrier county and will take in 18,121 acres.

F. M. Glenn, sheep expert of the department, is enthusiastic over the plan and says the ranch will be established in a narrow belt of West Virginia which produces the finest fleeces in the world.

THE DOUGHBOYS HELD THEIR GROUND

From the moment that American commander said, "Retreat—hell, we just got here!" in answer to the importunities of the hard-pressed French, the American doughboys held every inch of ground they took. They are now holding ground in Germany. It cost them flesh and blood, comrades dead and wounded, to win and hold their ground. It is costing them the rigors of army life and the opportunity of getting back to paying jobs to hold the German soil where they are now.

Are you holding your Liberty Bonds? Or, are you giving up hard won terrain to the enemy?

The boys over there can't retreat. They have to stick. They will go farther into Germany, probably. They can't say the war is over and give up.

The least any American can do is to hold his Liberty Bonds—hold them out of respect for the men still under arms if for no other reason. When you sell a Liberty Bond or trade it for some stock, worthless or otherwise, you are retreating.

That American commander who said, "Retreat—hell, we just got here!" was American flesh and bone. Are you? Then hold your bonds. Put them in the bank. Borrow on them if you have to. But hold them.

THRIFT MEANS
1. Planning—taking into consideration the needs of yourself, your family, and your country, not only for the present but also for the future.
2. Spending wisely to meet important present needs—getting the most for your money today and having something left for the morrow.
3. Investing the savings—the part which the unthrifty spend to satisfy trifling or unimportant wants—so that you may greet with happy countenance all important future needs and opportunities that knock at your door.

War Savings Stamps hold your money for opportunity's call.

War Savings Stamps begot thrift. Thrift begot success.

War Savings Stamps bought with today's savings provide for the rainy tomorrow.

WHAT YOU GET TO EAT FOR LITTLE PAY

(By Associated Press) PARIS, France, Feb. 16.—A boon and a blessing to Parisians groaning under the present exorbitant restaurant prices is the first dining hall under municipal control which has recently opened on the boulevard de Granelle, on the south side of the Seine.

Here, a portion of soup or a hot bouillabaisse costs 6 cents, 3 ounces of meat or 5 of fish can be obtained for 10 cents and a dash of vegetables for 8 cents. No charge is made for bread, although the bread card is duly clipped. No intoxicants are served, and tipping is not allowed.
